

'Winter Festivals and Traditions' Conference

Saturday 25 March, 2017

Institute of Social and Cultural Anthropology
Oxford University

9.15-9.45 – Registration

9.45-10.00 – Opening remarks: Dr Ann Wand, Oxford University

10.00-11.15 – Panel I: Festivals through history

Chair: Johana Musalkova, Oxford University

Presenters:

10.00-10.15: Dr Brigid Burke, Montclair State University (USA)

The Lenaia: The winter festival of Dionysus in the context of Greek beliefs about death and the afterlife

10.20-10.35: Dr Joy Fraser, George Mason University (USA)

“Some fiends disguised as mummers”: The Isaac Mercer murder case and the politics of sectarianism in nineteenth century Newfoundland

10.40-10.55: Dr Richard Irvine, Cambridge University (UK)

Following the bear: the revival of East Anglian Straw Bear traditions

11.15-11.30 – Break

11.30-12.30 – Keynote speaker

Convenor: Dr Ann Wand, Oxford University

11.30-12.10: Dr Cesare Poppi, La Scuola Universitaria Professionale della Svizzera Italiana (Switzerland)

Sex and the Afterweb: rethinking tradition and cultural continuity

12.15-12.30: Q & A discussion

12.30-13.30 – Lunch

13.30-14.45 – Panel II: Krampus and Christmas

Chair: Dr Ann Wand, Oxford University

Presenters:

13.30-13.45: Dr Gertraud Seiser and Dr Matthäus Rest, University of Vienna and University of Munich (Austria and Germany)

Wild and beautiful: the Krampus in Salzburg

13.50- 14.05: Amber Dorko Stopper, co-founder of Parade of Spirits, Liberty Lands (USA)

Spectres and spectra: building self-sustaining folklore and neurodiversity inclusion into processional arts

14.10- 14.25: Lucinda Murphy, Durham University (UK)

The nostalgia of Christmas worship: a resource for re-collection, re-reflection and re-renewal

14.45-15.15 – Coffee and tea break

15.15-16.30 – Panel III: Carnival, museums and department stores

Chair: Dr Nicolette Makovicky, Oxford University

Presenters:

15.15- 15.30: Prof. Adrian Franklin, University of Tasmania (Australia)

Where ‘art meets life’: the making of Australia’s most successful mid-winter festival [Dark MOFO] in Hobart, Tasmania

15.35- 15.50: Dr Gareth Hamilton and Dita Vinovska, University of Latvia

Losing ‘track’ of inverted time and space: the ‘Crazy Days’ in and outside a Finnish-owned department store in Riga

15.55-16.10: Dr Giovanni Kezich, Museo degli Usi e Costumi della Gente Trentina (Italy)

Carnival King of Europe: European winter masquerades in ethnographic perspective

16.15-16.30: Q & A panel discussion

16.30-16.45 – Break

16.45-17.35 – Panel IV: Food and animals in festivals

Chair: Robin Smith, Oxford University

Presenters:

16.45-17.00: Dr Francesco Della Costa, Ben Gurion University of the Negev, Be'er Sheva (Israel)

The venerable pig: ritual food sharing within a traditional festival in Abruzzo, Italy

17.05- 17.20: Pawel Sendyka, Jagiellonian University (Poland)

The bacas and the priests: how the old adversaries came together to revive and reinterpret tradition

17.25-17.40: Q & A panel discussion

17.45-18.00 – Closing remarks: Dr Robert Parkin, Oxford University